June 1-5, 2020

WEBINAR

INCLUSIVE SYSTEMIC EVALUATION FOR GENDER EQUALITY, ENVIRONMENTS AND MARGINALIZED VOICES (ISE4GEMS). CASE STUDIES FROM COLOMBIA AND THE CARIBBEAN

This webinar will introduce ISE4GEMs; a methodology designed to work with the intersecting complexities of gender equality, environmental conservation (as well as habitability) and the inclusion of marginalized voices (human and non-human).

The relevance of this topic directly supports the Agenda 2030 of “leaving no-one behind”, using systems thinking and transdisciplinary theories (e.g. evaluation, feminist, sustainability, development, intersectionality) and practice towards increased grassroots designed social change. This webinar will serve to deepen the conversation and learning on how to create a systemic theory of change in acknowledgement of these complexities, legitimacy through participatory practices and ethical priorities.
